SHARON ANDERSON-GOLD Sharon Anderson-Gold was professor of philosophy at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. She is the author of Unnecessary Evil: History and Moral Progress in the Philosophy of Immanuel Kant (SUNY Press, 2001) and Cosmopolitanism and Human Rights (University of Wales Press, 2001) and the co-editor of Kant's Anatomy of Evil (Cambridge University Press, 2010). She has written numerous articles on Kant's moral, social and political philosophy and his philosophy of history. She is a past president of the North American Kant Society. For more than thirty years Sharon was a faculty member of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, where from 2004 she was the chair of the department of science and technology studies. In 2009, Sharon proposed the idea of a collection of essays relating Kant's teleology and philosophy of history; she was one of the initial co-editors of this volume. Sadly, Sharon passed away in 2011.

LUIGI CARANTI Luigi Caranti is associate professor of political philosophy at the Università di Catania. He received his Ph.D. from Boston University. Currently a visiting scholar at Columbia University, he was a Marie Curie Fellow at the Philipps-Universität Marburg (November 2005–November 2007). Caranti is the author of Kant and the Scandal of Philosophy (University of Toronto Press, 2007) and the editor of *Kant's Perpetual Peace.
